

Bible. The next best English classic is the prayer book.

When students have mastered these two, the bible and the prayer book, they will be masters of good English in the highest sense of the word (and ergo, masters of themselves) and never, till then, will they be, can they be, anything but mediocrity—often not that; illiterate and misinformed to a degree that astonishes the looker-on. "Is that so?" Allow me to ask you who translated the bible, who put it into English? Who compiled the prayer book?

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Give the children bread. The bread of life. No screening, "screenings," or scraps. 1896.

Patent in its Name.

Climate of every variety exerts a different influence on the desires of mankind for a stimulant. In colder zones beverages of great alcoholic strength are used to a very much larger degree than in the tropics. Beer is best suited to our climate and none found in the market is better than that bearing the brand of "PABST, MILWAUKEE." It is brewed from the best of malt and hops and is a great thirst quencher and invigorator and stimulates the nerves and muscles. At the Royal, Cosmopolitan and Pacific saloons it may be found, cold and pure. Interchangeable checks are issued which may be used at any of the three resorts.

B. Bergersen, agent, King and Bethel streets.

There seems to be some blight affecting the bloom of the beautiful Punciana Regia this season, for of all the trees in the city but few have blossoms enough to attract attention. The one on Hotel street next to the Arlington is a notable exception, and in consequence is a source of wonder and delight to visitors who have never before seen this tree in bloom. King Bros. have made several excellent sketches in oil and water colors of this subject, which are meeting with ready sale.
